Privacy Notice

We keep information about you.

We keep information about:

- who you are
- where you live
- your health
- your family
- your support

The law says that we are allowed to keep this information about you as long as we follow the rules.

We have this information about you so we can provide you with the support you need.

Sometimes Positive Futures may have to share this information with other people and there are rules about how we do this.

You can ask to see the information that we have about you and how we support you.

We keep your information for as long as it is needed to help you, or for as long as the law tells us to.

If you want to know more about the information we have and what we do with it, you or your family can ask staff at Positive Futures.
