JOB INFORMATION SHEET

SENIOR SUPPORT WORKER

1. SALARY AND BENEFITS

Salary Scale

The Senior Support Worker salary scale is based on the HSE Social Care Worker (Intellectual Disability) scale. However, staff will only be able to progress to Point 6 on the scale if they possess a relevant FETAC Level 7 qualification or other relevant Degree.

1.	€ 32,869.00
2.	€ 34,298.00
3.	€ 36,055.00
4.	€ 37,342.00
5.	€ 38,641.00
6.	€ 39,947.00
7.	€ 41,274.00
8.	€ 42,622.00
9.	€ 43,961.00
10.	€ 45,323.00
11.	€ 46,692.00
12.	€ 47,589.00

Starting point on the scale will be dependent upon relevant experience.

Flexibility is key as you will be required to carry out night-time support in order to carry out the duties of the role in full. Payment will be discussed upon commencement of post.

Holidays:

The holiday year runs 1 Jan –31 December.

30 days pro-rata per annum (including 10 designated holidays).

We recognise 10 designated holidays: New Year's Day (1 January), Saint Brigid's Day (1st Monday in February), Saint Patrick's Day (17 March), Easter Monday, first Monday in May, first Monday in June, first Monday in August, last Monday in October, Christmas Day (25 December) and Saint Stephen's Day (26 December).

The Annual Leave Policy and Procedure outline arrangements for full-time, part-time and relief staff who work on public holidays, and arrangements for requesting and having leave approved in advance of all holidays.

Pension:

Staff who have completed their probationary period and are confirmed in post can elect to become a member of a Positive Futures' contributory pension scheme. This means that you must, at a minimum, match the contribution of 4% made by Positive Futures in the pension investment account which is set up for you through O'Leary Insurance Group to save for your retirement. You have the option to increase your contribution through an Additional Voluntary Contribution (AVC) which is completely voluntary. Tax relief is given by the Revenue on the amount you contribute. More information about the pension scheme can be provided by Human Resources.

Staff Care

We all have periods in our lives when our psychological wellbeing is at risk. Positive Futures staff can speak in complete confidence to trained counsellors about anything they need to. They provide a confidential and non-judgemental counselling service.

Sick Pay

We believe that when our staff are ill, they should take the time they need to recover, and should not feel financially pressured into returning to work before they are ready.

Positive Futures' contracted staff are eligible for the following sick pay entitlements:

13 weeks up to completion of probation	3 days at 70% of daily rate, capped at a maximum of €110.00 per calendar year
After probation and up 2 years' service	2 weeks of full pay* per 12 month rolling period
After 2 years' service	4 weeks of full pay* per 12 month rolling period

* Full pay means Illness Benefit topped up to full pay. For example, if a staff member normally gets €350 per week as their salary and they get €100 per week in Illness Benefit, they would be paid €250 per week by Positive Futures to top up their Illness Benefit so that both amounts combined equal their normal pay i.e. €350 per week.

Training & Support:

All members of staff will receive induction, relevant training, regular Person Centred Supervision and Appraisal

13. CONDITIONAL OFFERS

- a) Prior to taking up duty, the person conditionally offered the position must:
- b) Provide requested identification documents.
- c) Satisfactorily pass a medical assessment through completion of a medical questionnaire.
- d) Produce details of the bank or building society account to which their salary will be lodged.
- e) A Garda Vetting check must be completed prior to employment. In line with best practice a Garda Vetting check is to be requested every four years.

The fact that a person has a criminal record or has convictions or criminal investigation pending does not automatically render them unsuitable for appointment. Suitability is assessed in the light of all the information available. If you have provided information, there will be an opportunity for you to discuss this as part of the selection procedure. Positive Futures' Criminal Records and Recruitment of Ex-Offenders Policy is available upon request.

Appointments will also be subject to Positive Futures receiving suitable satisfactory references for applicants.

Please note that the person offered the position must complete the pre-employment checks outlined above within 14 working days or consideration may be given to withdrawing the offer of employment.

Canvassing

Canvassing in any form, oral or written, direct or indirect, will disqualify an applicant for appointment. Applicants can, however, contact the relevant Department for further information about the post.

Interview expenses

Reimbursement of interview expenses is not available.

Waiting List

Positive Futures retains suitable candidates on a reserve list, for a period of six months, from which they may be offered similar opportunities in the same or other locations across Ireland. These positions may be for either full or part-time work as required.

14. PROBATIONARY PERIOD

On commencement of employment with Positive Futures all staff are required to complete a “probationary period” (usually six months). Confirmation in post depends on achieving the required standard in a range of topics including performance, attendance, training and behaviour. Staff in services must also complete the following in order to be confirmed in post:

Positive Futures’ Foundation Programme (PFFP):

Staff in Services, up to and including Deputy Service Manager, must complete the PFFP. They should submit the completed PFFP by Week 24, to be signed off by the Service Manager. This process will then be audited by the L&D Department prior to the 6 month review.
